Collection of a child by a minor

Policy statement

Tiddlywinks Pre-School holds a policy that no child under the age of 16 (sixteen) years, unless it is the parent, may collect a child from the group. This also applies to members of the same family.

- At the end of a session, a child at the group will only be handed over to an appropriate adult (i.e. parent or nominated adult).
- Once a child has been handed over to the adult at the end of the session, Tiddlywinks Pre-School is no longer legally responsible for that child.
